Mauch Chunk Opera House

The Glimmer Twins sure came ready to perform at the Mauch Chunk Opera House in Jim Thorpe last night, giving our audience all it wanted and a whole lot it surely didn't expect. For me, it was hearing "Sympathy for the Devil" and "Midnight Rambler" played "Get Yer Ya Ya's Out" style, with all the amazing guitar interplay and the all-out theatrics. We have to think word might get around about their show. That was a great performance Glimmers, keep up the great work!
